v.) ORDER
)
PAUL OSUJI,)
)
)

THIS MATTER IS BEFORE THE COURT on the Motion to Modify Magistrate Judge's Oral Order (document #19) filed by the defendant, Paul Osuji, on January 25, 2007. In the motion, the defendant seeks a modification of his terms of pretrial release. Specifically, the defendant seeks a modification that would allow him to apply for a job as a nursing assistant or similar position, provided he is not engaged in billing Medicare/Medicaid, processing claims, or otherwise personally involved in receipt of funds from Medicare/Medicaid. The defendant's motion reflects that the attorney for the government has no objection to this modification. The Court will grant the motion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Defendant's Motion to Modify Magistrate Judge's Oral Order is hereby GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the terms of pretrial release for defendant shall be modified to allow the defendant to apply for a job as a nursing assistant or similar position, provided he is not engaged in billing Medicare/Medicaid, processing claims, or otherwise personally involved in receipt of funds from Medicare/Medicaid.

Signed: February 23, 2007

David C. Keesler
United States Magistrate Judge
